The Goal Attained—Knox and James, the Boral and enterprising hat manufacturers of the Prescott House, commenced business at their present locality with the determination, by furnishing the best article that their skill sculd produce, to command the patronage of the intelligent and refined. And they have accomplished it, as their success prover. The Prescott Hat Store, within a door or two of Refler's Magic Saloon, is on the corner of Broadway and Spring street.

and Spring street.

Knex, No. 128 Fuiton street.—There is a world of genius displayed in a hat. The graceful curve, the well poised crown, the glossy exterior, are all the result of genius. A Knox hat is the ne plus ultra of beaverdom—the gauntict which seems to say 'beat me if you can.' All the world wear those hats. Every second gent in Broadway bears a Knox on his head; if he didn't the world would not care to look at him as it does. KNOX'S hats are cheap and durable, and as light as gossamer. Try one on, and give us your opinion.

Good Wine needs no Bush, but if you wish to upply yourself with a stock of genuiue, unadulterated wines, brandies, or segars, you must necessarily go to an establishment where the amount of business transacted and the probity of the proprietors afford proof that the article sold is purely what it is represented. Do you wish to be directed to such a place? Call on Mr. Edmund C. Charles, at Ne. 7 Park place, and you will be certain of receiving satisfaction. Proprietors of hotels and rostaurants, and strangers visiting town, should make a note of this.—(New York Sachem.
